- Strictly no vehicles back on site before 4pm.

3 Your documents

Please upload up-to-date copies of the following to the Trader Hub before you trade. The Hub asks a few quick questions and shows only what applies to you.

ALL TRADERS

- Public liability insurance for £1 million
- Risk assessment

FOOD TRADERS, WHERE RELEVANT

- Gas safety certificate, tested by a Gas Safe engineer registered to check mobile catering units
- PAT test certificate for electrical items over a year old
- The local authority you're registered with, so we can check you on the FSA database
- Your food hygiene rating certificate
- Food hygiene and health & safety training certificates

Upload your documents to the Trader Hub foodrockssouth.co.uk/hub

4 Parking

- Free trader parking at Gloucester Road car park, RH1 1FH.
- Show a trader parking voucher in your car. Jon has them.

5 Gazebos and tables

- Bring your own gazebo with proper weights, or borrow one of ours for free.
- Bring your own tables and chairs.

6 Power

- Mains electricity (16A) at a fixed cost per day, booked in advance.
- Bring your own tested plugs and leads.

7 Waste

- The market bins are only for trade waste made at the market that day.
- Don't bring trade or household waste from elsewhere, and don't use the town's litter bins.

8 Selling alcohol

If you sell alcohol at the market, these rules apply every day you trade.

- No TEN needed. Alcohol at the market is sold under the market's premises licence.
- Challenge 25. Anyone who looks under 25 must show valid photo ID (passport, photo driving licence or PASS card) before being served or offered a sample.
- Display Challenge 25 signage on your stall and keep a refusals log. Jon may ask to see it.
- Samples are small tasting measures only, and never for anyone under 18.
- We may stop alcohol sales if a licence condition is breached, or if the police or council ask.
